

TRANSLATION

Final Project/Thesis, Dissertation Requirements (including English Proficiency) for Final Semester Students

Basis:

- a. Rector's Regulation Number 9 of 2020 concerning Academic Regulations for Undergraduate Education Programs (S-1) at UPN "Veteran" East Java;
- b. Rector's Regulation Number 03 of 2019 concerning Guidelines for Master's Education Programs at UPN "Veteran" East Java;
- c. Rector's Regulation Number 11 of 2020 concerning Guidelines for Doctoral Education Programs Based on Coursework at UPN "Veteran" East Java;
- d. Rector's Decree Number 56/UN63/TU/2023 concerning the UPN "Veteran East Java Academic Calendar for the 2023/2024 Academic Year;
- e. English Proficiency Test Guidelines by the Language Academic Support Unit.

2. In relation to the aforementioned, Study Programs/Departments/Faculties are required to:

- a. Arrange final project/thesis, dissertation exam schedules according to the UPN "Veteran" East Java academic calendar.
- b. Determine the requirements for taking final projects/theses, dissertations and implement them in an orderly and directed manner.
- c. Monitor the implementation of final project completion and its requirements so that students can take part in graduation ceremonies according to the predetermined schedule.

3. Regarding point 1e in the basis above, as part of the requirements for completing the Final Project/Thesis, Thesis, Dissertation, the Study Program/Department/Faculty needs to pay attention to and implement that:

- a. English proficiency equivalent to TOEFL 450 is a requirement for Undergraduate Program students to take a final thesis project;

b. English proficiency equivalent to TOEFL 450 is an academic requirement for prospective Master's program students and making English proficiency equivalent to TOEFL 475 a requirement for Master's program students to take the Thesis exam;

c. English proficiency equivalent to TOEFL 500 is an academic requirement for prospective doctoral students and is a requirement for Doctoral Program students to take the Closed Dissertation exam.

Signed,

Rector